

PRISON ENTERPRISE TRUST – LOGICAL FRAMEWORK

	Objectives	Indicators	Evidence	Assumptions
Overall Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Reduced re-offending 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Offender management statistics 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Comparison between pilot sites and national statistics – Qualitative feedback from (ex-)offenders
Project Purpose	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – ‘Real work’ within prison – Financial inclusion 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Jobs created – Quality of ‘work’ – Access to credit 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Internal statistics from pilots – Qualitative feedback from (ex-)offenders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Successful pilots employing offenders - Skills gained lead to employment/self - employment - Income sufficient to sustain life ‘going straight’ - Credit union proves viable
Project Outputs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Training and work experience for offenders – Work placement opportunities with employers – ‘Real wages’ for offenders – Access to personal credit on release – Creation of host social enterprise – Self-sustaining enterprises in prisons – Creation of credit union 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – No: of training places, qualifications, hours worked – No: of placements, no: of participating employers – Comparative wages – Loans/credit granted – Social enterprise formed & trading – Income performance of enterprises – Credit union formed and trading 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Performance statistics from projects – Qualitative feedback from (ex-)offenders – Governance papers from social enterprise – Governance papers from credit union 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Enterprise pilot can be integrated within prison regime – Sentence plans allow for gaining/sustaining of skills – Enterprise pilots become sustainable businesses – Sufficient start-up funding – Credit union passes feasibility stage

	Objectives	Indicators	Evidence	Assumptions
Project Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Jobs and training for offenders in market focused enterprises in prisons - Personal development programmes for offenders - Links with potential employers - Links with ROMS/ resettlement plans - Payroll and personnel management for employees - Marketing and sales development - Collection of performance statistics - Local management boards and governance processes - Savings & loans through credit union - Advocacy and links with policy formation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - No: of training places, qualifications, hours worked - Individual training records - No: of placements, no: of participating employers - Individual resettlement plans - Payroll/personnel systems - Sales statistics - Membership of boards - Savings lodged & loans/credit granted - Advocacy meetings & reports 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Performance statistics from projects - Qualitative feedback from (ex-)offenders - Governance papers from social enterprise - Governance papers from credit union 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prisons willing to host pilots - Offenders willing to join scheme - Viable business plan for each pilot - Support from partner organisations
			Pre-conditions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Enabling policy environment - Funding for pilots